Neptune Residents Arrested in Drug Bust

On 4/6/2016, after a two month investigation, the Neptune Township Police Department's Street Crimes Unit executed an early morning search warrant at a residence on Shorebrook Circle. Arrested during the search warrant were residents Marcus Anthony Williams, 54 years old, (formerly of Alabama) and Patricia Marcus, 55 years old. Officers seized 200 bags of Heroin, Oxycodone, Methadone, $1,226.00 in cash, drug paraphernalia and a 2005 Dodge Pickup.

Both subjects were charged with the following:

- Possession of Heroin
- Possession of Heroin with Intent to Distribute
- Possession of Heroin with Intent to Distribute School Zone
- Possession of Oxycodone
- Possession of Oxycodone with Intent to Distribute
- Possession of Oxycodone with Intent to Distribute School Zone
- Possession of Methadone
- Possession of Methadone with Intent to Distribute
- Possession of Methadone with Intent to Distribute School Zone
- Possession of Paraphernalia (packaging materials)

Williams is being held at the Monmouth County Correctional Institution on $195,000.00 with a 10% option. Marcus was released on a summons for the charges but was lodged at Monmouth County Correctional Institution on an unrelated contempt of court warrant from Neptune Twp.

Assisting in the execution of the search warrant were the Monmouth County Prosecutor's Office Narcotic Strike Force and the Monmouth County Sheriff's Office K9 Unit.
